Dr. King Asks Non-Violence
In Little Rock School Crisis

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., president of the Montgomery, Ala., Improvement Association, has urged the people of Little Rock, Ark, to be Christian and dignified in their struggle for integration and to fight violence with non-violence.

In a telegram to Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the NAACP at Little Rock, and the Rev. Roland Smith, prominent Negro minister in that city, according to a spokesman for the association,

DIFFICULT ADVICE

Dr. King, renown pastor of Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery, said:

URGE THE PEOPLE OF LITTLE ROCK TO ADOPT NON-VIOLENCE AT ALL TIMES.

You are being terrorized, stoned, and threatened by ruthless mobs. But non-violence is the only way to a lasting solution of the problem.

MOB RULE

"History is on your side. World opinion is with you. The moral conscience of millions of white Americans is with you. Keep struggling with this faith and the tragic night of anarchy and mob rule which encompasses your city at this time will be transformed into the glowing daybreak of freedom and justice."

LAST ATTEMPTED

Referring to Gov. Orval Faubus calling out the Arkansas National Guard on Sept. 2 apparently to impede integration processes, Dr. King recently termed this "a last desperate attempt of the South to delay integration at all costs."

The young minister has said he is "optimistic" about the integration process and has predicted that "before the turn of the century segregation and discrimination will not exist in America."
